Special Equestrians, Inc. Confidentiality and Conduct Policy

Description of Personnel

A person, paid or unpaid, who has responsibility related to the day-to-day activities of the center.

Description of Participants

All riders, students, clients and patients-every individual, with or without disabilities, who receives service through the equine assisted activities conducted by the center.

Confidentiality Policy

Special Equestrians Inc. shall preserve the right of confidentiality for all individuals in our program. The staff will keep all medical, social, referral, personal and financial information regarding all persons and their family confidential.

Interpretation: Staff will not discuss medical, personal, or financial information with anyone at the facility or away from it. A participant may not be competent to give consent for disclosure of medical or sensitive information due to age or disability incapacity. Children under 18 do not have legal authority to consent to disclosure. Special Equestrians will not disclose medical or other sensitive information to any agency or persons outside the program without written consent from the participant or his/her parents in the event the participant is a minor.

Inappropriate Conduct of Personnel and Participants

Inappropriate Conduct of personnel & participants should be reported to lead personnel. Such incidences will be investigated and those responsible for such behavior may be dismissed from the program at the discretion of Special Equestrians, Inc.

Failure to Follow Procedure

Anyone failing to follow policies and procedures should be reported to lead personnel. Such failure will be discussed with the involved party and if appropriate, retraining will be attempted. Repeated or deliberate failure to follow policies and procedures will result in dismissal from the program at the discretion of Special Equestrians, Inc.

Mistreatment and/or Abuse of Animals

Anyone found to be mistreating animals in the care of Special Equestrians, Inc. should be reported to lead personnel. If upon further investigation, the action has been found inappropriate, the responsible party will be dismissed from the program at the discretion of Special Equestrians, Inc.

I have read and/or have been verbally taught, and understand the policies and procedures with regard to my position at Special Equestrians, Inc.
